PATIENT SAFETY AND THE LAW

John Tingle discusses and tracks the Patient Safety agenda in the UK and argues that there is evidence of a patient safety policy fatigue taking place. Clinicians , managers and others need to take the concept much more seriously. The patient safety agenda is in urgent need of refreshment. Patient Safety should now be equated much more with IHL, (International Humanitarian Law) and IHRL (International Human Rights Law).Further he argues Patient Safety is a global problem and the developing world has an urgent need for initiatives.
